Excise Duty exemption for Ashok Paper Mill, BRPL and Digboi Refinery

1012. DR. ARUN KUMAR SARMA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the concerned Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion as well as Petroleum and Natural Gas has recommended excise duty exemption to Ashok Paper Mill, BRPL and Digboi Refinery of Assam under Special Industrial Policy declared for North-Eastern Region.

(b) if so, the date on which the recommendation was received and the action taken to clear the exemption proposal; and

(c) the time by when it is likely to be cleared?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI GINGEE N. RAMACHANDRAN): (a) to (c) Proposal to extend excise duty exemption to BRPL was received from Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion in the month of January, 2001. On examination it has not been found possible to accede to the proposal.

Proposal to extend excise duty exemption to the Ashok Paper Mill was received from Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion in the month of April, 2001. The matter was examined. The Commissioner of Central Excise has reported that since the unit existed prior to 24.12.1997 and has not undertaken 25% or more of expansion in its installed capacity on or after 24.12.1997, exemption under notification Nos. 32/99-Central Excise or 33/99-Central Excise both dated 8.7.99 is not available to Ashok Paper Mill. Regarding Digboi refinery, a copy of the recommendation dated January, 2001 from the Ministry of Petroleum has been received in the month of July, 2001. However, the exemption is available either to new units or to units that have undertaken substantial expansion on or after 24th December, 1997.
